Brief description of church

Fremont Presbyterian Church is located in desirable Sacramento, California one block from Sacramento State University and near both the mountains and the ocean. The city provides a balance of bigger city life with a smaller city feel with cost of living favorable compared to Los Angeles or the San Francisco Bay Area. The church has nearly 1,000 members and has full and diverse ministries, including strong music, youth and children's programs connecting with large numbers of community members. Fremont also has numerous active partnerships with local and global mission agencies. Both traditional and contemporary worship services are offered with approximately 750 adults attending each Sunday morning. Fremont strives to create space for people to become lifelong followers of Jesus and to relentlessly pursue His transformation of our neighborhood, our city and the world.

Brief title and description of position

The Assistant Pastor for Congregational Life (APCL) is an ordained position and provides pastoral care and spiritual support to visitors and members, helping integrate them into the life and community of Fremont. The APCL provides compassionate leadership for the overall planning, development, pastoral oversight, evaluation and mission advancement of ministries that meet both the spiritual and physical needs of the congregation, and facilitates teams that lead the Congregational Life ministries of Hospitality, Assimilation, Member Care, Prayer, Health and Seniors. These responsibilities are accomplished primarily through collaboration with other individuals and teams.
