Introduction

The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of “matching” ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the individual pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and for evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and commitment to open communication.

The Church Information Form presents the local congregation’s history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will be of help in facilitating the search process, assisting the church in focusing on future directions and pastors in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

15. In what ways does your church participate in ecumenical activities?

Centerville Free Dining: founded 30 years ago, has 15 churches and service clubs that provide volunteers to serve the community with hot meals Tuesdays & Thursdays each week.

Compassion Network: a coalition of 17 area churches (with an office in City Hall), that networks needy families of the community with congregations to help in the name of Jesus.

The Homeless Chaplain ministry has eight congregations represented in providing outreach to the homeless mentally ill.

16. Describe the strengths of your congregation:

The congregation sees CPC as a Christ-centered Church, and themselves as growing Christians who want to further the Gospel in our immediate community as well as in mission fields abroad. We expect to be involved in hands on ministry and have a long history of providing meals, shelter and comfort for the poor of our area as well as sending youth and members to build, teach and share the gospel in various mission fields.

We have a caring pastoral staff and devoted leaders who are available and approachable. Our members have a legacy of faithful, long-term commitment. We have a spiritual hunger as evidenced by individual Bible study, active participation in small groups, and commitment to doctrinal integrity.

We have good programs for youth, children, music, Bible study and fellowship and we have a good reputation in the area as a willing partner in ministry. We do indeed have much to celebrate.

17. List specific problems with which your congregation struggles:

* Business and Silicon Valley lifestyles. With demanding engineering jobs, growing congestion in traffic, and long commutes it makes it difficult for members to fully commit to leadership in the life of the church.
* Making the generational and demographic transition:
  - One segment of our congregation is "aging in place" with the average age of 75. We need to reach out/expand our congregation to a younger demographic, younger families and increased ethnic diversity that more closely reflects our community.
  - The ethnic demographics have shifted every five years. Recently the community has begun to shift from dominant population of Chinese engineers, to Indo-American engineers-- which means a shift from Buddhist community to more Hindu. Maintaining a bold witness is vital.
* Cost of housing for staff and members: the escalating rent and ownership prices are pushing people to make decisions about whether they can remain in the community.

18. List major goals that this congregation has set for itself:

Session has created goals around our mission of: Authentic Community, Experiencing Jesus, and Transforming Lives. These goals include: 1. Sharing the Good news within our daily lives, the community at large, and the world; 2. Make Disciples and baptize through discipleship, training and mentor-ship; 3. Live life together, through prayers, small groups, and caring for others in need within the church and outside the church. Session has also had an ongoing goal of seeking a multi-generational and multicultural church and we are continuing to move in that direction as the Lord leads us.
19. Has there ever been disciplinary action taken against a pastor of your congregation?

☐ Yes  ✓ No

20. Has there ever been any disciplinary action against an elder or deacon of your congregation?

☐ Yes  ✓ No

If you answered “Yes” to either 19 or 20, please explain:

In 1994, Session called for an Administrative Commission to be formed by the PCUSA. This was done to review circumstances involving the Senior Pastor and Associate Pastor at the church. After a time of review, the Administrative Commission recommended to remove both pastors due to lack of cooperation and communication with the congregation. Both Session and the pastors approved the recommendation. No disciplinary action was taken and both pastors stepped down from CPC.

21. Have you completed a mission statement, vision statement and/or a strategic plan for your congregation?

✓ Yes    Date: 7/28/18    ☐ No

If yes, please attach copies.
Part 4: Leadership Expectations

22. What five key characteristics/gifts/skills should a person bring to the position?

As Centerville pursues the Great Commission in Matthew 28:18-20 and becomes more like the church of Acts 2, we are seeking someone who is:

* Servant Leader above reproach as defined in 1 Timothy 3 and Titus 1. We desire a person who is Christ-centered in all aspects of life (a voluntary servant of Christ), committed to serve the needs of others before their own, courageous to lead with power and love as an expression of serving, consistently developing others into servant leaders, and continually inviting feedback from those that they want to serve in order to grow towards the ultimate servant leader, Jesus Christ.

* Passion to see others come to Jesus Christ as Savior. Passion and love for people. A good shepherd of the flock, an inviting posture toward newcomers. Proven ability to lead a multiple staff team with a participatory and collaborative management style. Experience lifting up, encouraging, and engaging a congregation to live out the Great Commission. Focus on teaching and mentoring others to lead.

* Proven gifts in teaching and preaching. A leader with depth in guiding the congregation through Biblical books, expository, or carefully planned topical studies that the congregation can study alongside.

* An individual who is Culturally Competent, and willing to learn about other cultures and all age groups- sensitive and adaptive in approaches that affirm and invite people from diverse backgrounds and age groups into worship and leadership. This pastor must show a heart and strategy to reach the Nations in our Neighborhoods and around the world. Heart to serve the hurt, needy, and isolated. A pastor with a longing to help those that are hurting in the community and the congregation, and engage the congregation to pray for and serve those in need.

* Heart to serve the hurt, needy, and isolated. A pastor with a longing to help those that are hurting in the community and the congregation, and engage the congregation to pray for and serve those in need.
Part 5: Church History

1. What do you consider to be the three most important events in the history of your church?

   Centerville Presbyterian Church was founded by Rev. William Wallace Brier on June 4, 1853. Originally known as Alameda Presbyterian Church, the name was changed in 1873 to its current one. A church was constructed on donated land in 1855 and was rebuilt after the earthquake of 1868. The church continues to own the land and cemetery at the original church site.

   As the church membership swelled following the urbanization of the region after World War II, the congregation decided to build a larger church on the present site on Central Ave. In the 1990’s, the new education and gymnasium buildings were added.

   Currently, Rev. Greg Roth and his wife Rev. Marsha Roth provide church leadership. They have served the congregation for over 24 years. The Roth’s followed Rev. Bruce Giles, who was the senior pastor for over 20 years.

   Of note is our move into the EPC a little over five years ago. The discernment process was a unifying journey, testing our Biblical roots and determination. Our dismissal vote was 98% in favor of leaving. We have paid off our ‘exit fee’ and are now contributing and attending Presbytery and General Assembly with great joy.

   There have been waves of relocation that have impacted our congregation. Home prices soar at nearly 23% a year, crossing the barrier where it takes both husband and wife who are working in professional jobs to afford a single-family home. We are transitioning from a suburban community to an upscale medium rise urban community. There are many anxieties and growing pains.

2. What do you consider to be the most interesting and challenging event in the life of your church in the last three years?

   A note from the current pastor:

   You are in for a treat in leading this great congregation! CPC is a loving church that has a solid sense of unity, respected leadership and gifted staff. When searching for a new position, a pastor wonders if the congregation is stuck, and if it will adapt well to new leadership and direction. It has shown itself to have a vision for the lost, and a desire to be adaptable to meet the needs of the community. We were recently in discussion about changing the church name. We have tried new music and worship styles, and are seeking to stretch the boundaries. Our traditional worship director will retire in June of 2019.

   This is a deeply Biblical congregation, with a hunger to study the Scriptures. They are warm, prayerful, and have shown a great sense of community. We have made strides in becoming intercultural and intergenerational congregation. We are currently around 30% intercultural.

   CPC has tried many approaches to reach the surrounding community. One example is in the launching of 'The Foundry' service over a year ago targeting young families. This has invigorated and enhanced all of our congregation, sharpening our vision for Christian community and outreach.

2. Other significant factors about our church not covered in previous questions:
   The Lord has used Centerville Presbyterian Church over the last 165 years to spread His Gospel and reach the hurting and lost in Fremont and the Bay Area. While the community has changed over the years, we believe the Lord is not done with His Mission for our church. We believe there is a revival that is coming and we are excited to be a part of His work. The congregation is looking forward to who He is bringing to be a part of His mission at CPC.
