The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of “matching” ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the individual pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and for evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and commitment to open communication.

The Church Information Form presents the local congregation’s history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will be of help in facilitating the search process, assisting the church in focusing on future directions and pastors in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

Part 4: Leadership Expectations

1. What five key characteristics, gifts, and/or skills should a person bring to the position?

1. Sound Biblical understanding and teaching: Ability to preach the Word of God and help relate it to contemporary issues

2. Communication: Able to speak clearly and dynamically when delivering a sermon, ability to communicate well both orally and in written form, good interpersonal communication skills, good listener

3. Leadership: Inspire and encourage the staff, Session, Deacons, and congregation, work well in a team, ability to delegate as needed

4. Pastoral Care: In home and hospital visits, counseling as needed, lead congregation to a healthy spiritual life

5. Interact well with all ages and have ideas on how to lead an intergenerational church well
Part 5: Church History

1. What do you consider to be the three most important events in the history of your church?

   Please see attached.

2. What do you consider to be the most interesting and challenging event in the life of your church in the last three years?

   In August 2019, our current pastor suffered a massive heart attack. We have seen God’s miracles in that he is still here with his family, and continues to regain his health. In light of this, our Session, Deacons, and congregation has had to come together as family and step up in the everyday running and leading of our church. It has been a time of true Christian fellowship as we have continued to support our pastor and his family and stay true to our mission as a church family. We have grown closer in some ways, and we have seen division in others. However, all in all, we continue to be one family that strives to worship God and create disciples of Jesus Christ who then make others disciples of Jesus Christ.

2. Describe any significant factors about the church not covered in previous questions.

   Our church has a proud history that is older than Hanford or Kings County! By the mid 1870s, a few hardy settlers, lured by the promise of a land “as rich as the Nile Valley,” had come to the Mussel Slough area and had begun the backbreaking work of turning the plains into farms, orchards, vineyards and towns. Lacking modern conveniences, the essential tasks of daily living left little time for social activities.

   Cumberland Presbyterian ministers, who were affectionately addressed as ‘Father’, came into the area to minister to the residents at camp meetings. These gatherings, which were held by several denominations, not only furnished the settlers with their only source of religious experience outside their home, but also were “the last word” in social events.

   As the outcome of an 1878 camp meeting led by Rev. Warren Compton, eight members banded together to form a mission that continued until November 18, 1878 when the first church was organized with Rev. William Smith and seventeen members. This group met in the Exchange Saloon, where they read and sang.

   By 1880, with Rev. N. W. Motheral as pastor, the congregation expanded and our first church was built at the corner of Eighth and Douty Streets on property donated by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company. The largest donation toward the building was from the saloon owners. A wagon train of five large teams hauled lumber from the Tollhouse lumber mills. A frame church was erected, complete with a 600 pound bell. This building served until 1912 when the land was sold to Kings County for expansion of the courthouse. A new sanctuary was then built at our present location and served until the early 1980s, when it was razed after being replaced by our current sanctuary, which was dedicated on February 22, 1981.

   In 1899, a Chinese Mission was started in Hanford with Mrs. M.A. Harlow, an early missionary of the church, taking an active role. Gradually it became a mixed mission of Chinese and Japanese. In 1905 a Japanese mission was established with Mrs. Harlow as Superintendent. This mission developed into Harlow Memorial Presbyterian Church. When declining membership led to its closing in 1962, the remaining members were absorbed into our church family. The church became as a dream of a few faithful and lives on as we continue to be faithful to their dream and, more importantly, to the Christ of their faith.
