

Christ Fellowship Church Information Form

Mission Statement:

To be a community of Jesus' disciples, to make disciples of all nations.

Vision:

Disciples of Jesus...

1. Repent and Believe
2. Die to Self to Serve Others
3. Devote Themselves Daily to Scripture and Prayer
4. Practice Stewardship
5. Are Ambassadors for Christ

Church History:

Christ Fellowship Church (CFC) began in the summer of 1982 as Fort Collins Fellowship, a home study group that met in the living room of founding pastor and his wife, Ed and Donna Davis. In March 1983, CFC began worshipping in the Boltz Junior High School gym and for 21 years met in school gyms, a health club, a rented store front, and nursing home chapel before moving into its permanent facility in August 2004.

CFC is a congregation of the Orlando, Florida-based Evangelical Presbyterian Church and a member of the Presbytery of the West. The church has an annual general fund budget of $185,000. CFC also runs a full-time Christian pre-school ministry called Christ Fellowship Church Child Development Center (CFCCDC), which has an enrollment capacity of approximately 90 children and annual tuition revenues of $914,000.

Demographics:

CFC is a family of faith and fellowship featuring contemporary-style worship, uplifting praise and traditional sacred music and casual dress. Each Sunday, approximately 70 adults and 20 children attend CFC's 10:15 AM worship service.
