Gashland Evangelical Presbyterian Church (GEPC) Job Description

Job Title:	Teaching Elder and Senior Pastor
Employment Type	Full Time Staff
Length of Assignment	Indefinite

Pastoral Ministry Duties & Responsibilities

(Summarized from EPC Book of Order: Chapter 9-5.2)

- To provide pastoral, shepherding, and strategic leadership to Gashland Evangelical Presbyterian Church.
- Preach and expound the Word of God.
- Oversee the corporate worship of the church to ensure that it remains God-focused, scriptural, and edifying.
- Lead the congregation in the celebration of the sacraments.
- Oversee the education, nurture, and mission of the church.
- Along with the Ruling Elders, exercise joint ministry to the needs of the flock.
- Along with the Ruling Elders, provide pastoral care for those who are ill, hospitalized, shut-in, or otherwise in need of spiritual support.
- Minister to those who have need of a Pastor's care, love, and compassion, including performing weddings and officiating funerals for church members.
- Along with the Ruling Elders, exercise the joint responsibility of jurisdiction.

Teaching Elders recognize they cannot oversee Christ's church without Christ's help. Therefore, they commit to a daily devotional practice of worship, prayer, and Bible study as they seek the wisdom and will of God, the heart and mind of Christ, and guidance of the Holy Spirit in shepherding and governing the church.
