

Mission Statement

The Alder Presbyterian Church is a close-knit group of Christians that enjoys gathering together to share their lives, worship God, corporately pray for each other, learn from the Bible and seek God and his encouragement. Therefore, it is our purpose to spread the gospel by practicing hospitality, by assisting those in need in our community and by supporting the work of the Church worldwide.