

The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of "matching" ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and open communication.

This Church Information Form (CIF) presents the local congregation's history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will help facilitate the search process by assisting both the church in focusing on future directions and applicants in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

We encourage churches to list their vacancies on the Ministry Staff Opportunities webpage at www.epc.org/mso. For more information or to send your posting, email info@epc.org.

Guidance for church-based human resources questions such as background checks, personnel policy manuals, and more is available at the Office of the General Assembly by contacting Marti Ratcliff at marti.ratcliff@epc.org or 407-930-4263.

16. How are elders and deacons initially trained and equipped for ministry? There is currently no formal initial, or pre-training program.

New elders and deacons are provided copies of the EPC Leadership Manual, and the initial approval process includes a discussion of the qualifications, expectations and responsibilities of leaders.

A shepherding role for elders is an increasing area of expected responsibility.

17. What is the Session's current practice regarding the ongoing discipleship of elders and deacons?

Session meetings begin with approximately one hour of study/discussion of scripture or a book on spiritual leadership followed by prayer.

Session members are taking an increasing responsibility for shepherding the congregation, and training is provided through this process.

Deacons meet with the Session approximately three times each year to participate in leadership discussions.

There is current discussion of creating a Leadership Training program that would be required for all Ruling Elders.

2004 - Joined the EPC (formerly Presbyterian USA)

2. What do you consider to be the most interesting and challenging event in the life of your church in the last three years?

Hiring a new Senior Pastor during COVID (summer of 2020), and working through the process of returning to fully engaged, onsite worship and fellowship.

COVID presented unique challenges for the pastor to get to know the congregation. Many church members were (some continue to be) reticent to return to in-person worship. This has impacted getting volunteers to serve in the nursery, children's ministries, etc. It impacts the ability of the church to provide care for people.

Our congregation demographics have been changing over the past three years. We've had many senior citizens move away to be nearer family, and others have passed away. We're seeing an increase in young families coming to WEPC. Our challenge is t integrate these new families into the life of our church.
