

A Global Movement of Evangelical Presbyterian Churches

CHURCH INFORMATION FORM

The Ministerial Vocation Committee and the Office of the Stated Clerk of the Evangelical Presbyterian Church are responsible for denominational vocational services. As part of the process of “matching” ministers and congregations, the Office of the Stated Clerk provides resources and advice to both pastors and congregational search committees. To that end, we ask congregations and ministers to complete information forms as an introduction to each other, and a first step in the process of calling a minister for a congregation. For both the pastor and the congregation, this is an opportunity for self-study and evaluation of current ministry and goals. This calls for honesty, effort, and open communication.

This Church Information Form (CIF) presents the local congregation’s history, challenges, and goals. It is our hope that this will help facilitate the search process by assisting both the church in focusing on future directions and applicants in gaining some sense of the nature and uniqueness of this congregation.

We encourage churches to list their vacancies on the Ministry Staff Opportunities webpage at www.epc.org/mso. For more information or to send your posting, email info@epc.org.

Guidance for church-based human resources questions such as background checks, personnel policy manuals, and more is available at the Office of the General Assembly by contacting Marti Ratcliff at marti.ratcliff@epc.org or 407-930-4263.

16. How are elders and deacons initially trained and equipped for ministry?

Until 2022, officer training was provided by the Lead Pastor for all new elders and deacons. In 2022, Session took responsibility to prepare an 8 week Officer Training class presented by a team of Ruling and Teaching Elders. Training materials included the EPC Leadership Guide, Bob Hopper's EPC training videos, the Westminster Confession, the Book of Order and the Essentials. Upon completion, new officers are examined by Session before ordination and installation. Officers re-elected to serve are strongly encouraged to participate again in training because Leadership Training is effective not only for orientation in polity but for the development of important relationships across the church's leadership community.

19. Describe the strengths of your congregation.

Part 3: Church Characteristics

Question 19. Describe the Strengths of your Congregation:

- We care for our pastors financially, and deep and lasting friendships often develop.
- Eastminster holds a high view of Scripture and Biblical authority.
- Traditionally, reformed theology has been held in high value and widely understood.
- The current enthusiasm for the “theology for life” program is encouraging.
- We financially support many effective evangelical ministries located here in Wichita.
- Supported ministries share the Gospel as a requirement for our financial contribution.
- Many members live out their faith with integrity vocationally and as volunteers in our communities.
- When individuals share in one-on-one conversations or in small groups, they receive compassion, prayer, understanding, and specific support.
- Those who make their needs known are met with personal presence and prayer.
- There is a solid infrastructure in place to respond rapidly with help and prayer for those in need.
- Those with musical talents are utilized in worship. Members serve as ushers and greeters and small group/class teachers.
- There is a very large pool of gifted leaders in our congregation.
- We equip our children and youth with sound Biblical teaching and programming. Eastminster’s development and nurture of a strong children’s ministry values and develops engagement between multiple generations.
- We are a very generous congregation.
- We have a strong commitment to local and global missions. We know our missionaries and they know us.
- We have an excellent worship music ministry.
- We have many long-standing, committed members.
- We are blessed with a strong staff.

(see attached)

21. List major goals that the congregation has set for itself.
(see attached)

22. Has there ever been disciplinary action taken against a pastor of your congregation?

☐ Yes    ☒ No

23. Has there ever been any disciplinary action against an elder or deacon of your congregation?

☐ Yes    ☒ No

Question 20. List specific problems with which your congregation struggles:

- We have very high expectations of our pastors and have a history of struggle when a deficit becomes apparent.
- We can be critical of our pastor when he doesn't conform to our expectations.
- Session has sometimes abrogated its leadership responsibilities.
- We can fall short in affirming, providing encouragement, praying for, and offering constructive criticism to our pastor.
- We sometimes haven't fully utilized the pastor's natural gifting and provided grace for the pastor's natural weaknesses.
- We are an EPC session-led church, meaning session and pastors co-labor as a team, but we need help understanding the outworking of those particular roles and doing them well.
- We need a discipleship pastor who can provide leadership focused on:
  - understanding and employing spiritual gifts,
  - intentionally developing a culture of engagement
  - providing encouragement and training for volunteers
- We need help communicating opportunities and providing easy and effective "on-ramps" for service.
- We are often perceived as a formal church that lacks diversity and warmth and isn't currently growing the way we want to be.
- Eastminster is a "settled" church with a reluctance to embrace change and a suspicion of the unknown.
- Many might say hello in a service, but fail to go the next step--an invitation to lunch or a call or an invitation to serve together or join an event.
- Some members are trained and effective in ministries of both word and deed, but we have had few "new believer" baptisms outside of some from student ministries, and we lack adequate focus on evangelism.
- We do not bear the fruit of oneness or unity as described in James 3:17-18. We have three different and distinct worship services that challenge our unity. Lack of trust in leadership, difficult communication issues, lack of transparency, humility and vulnerability, and passionately held theological differences (over non-essentials) may contribute to a recurrent culture of suspicion and mistrust.
- There is a lack of maturity and grace towards those who hold differing views amongst staff, session, and congregants.
- We care about what we know about, but it's hard to know about everything. A lack of effective communication hinders us from caring as well as we could for one another.
- Many members do not feel they know Session or fully trust Session.
- The congregation has room for growth in its understanding of the Reformed faith and of Presbyterian polity.
- We need to develop empathy and compassion to care well for those with difficult, stigmatizing challenges.
- Members are not often involved in liturgy, prayer, or Scripture reading during worship, and there are few opportunities for sharing personal testimonies of faith.
- We lack the vitality, power and unity of the Holy Spirit.
- We need greater effectiveness engaging younger generations and an enhanced understanding of how to share authentically the truths of the Gospel with them.
- We need change in the culture of our church—more authenticity, vulnerability, humility, and sensitivity to the broken, even identification as the broken, sick, and desperate rather than the healthy, whole, and admirable.

Question 21. List major goals that the congregation has set for itself:

- Repentance and healing for the church leading to spiritual unity and wholeness.
- Transformation by the Holy Spirit, characterized by lives that demonstrate the fruit of the Spirit.
- Salvation decisions and believer baptisms as a result of members sharing the Gospel and their faith with friends and family.
- Call and receive a new Senior Pastor and Associate Pastor of Discipleship and support them faithfully.
- Gladly welcome visitors and intentionally seek to grow membership as we grow spiritual vitality.
- Re-create and implement a leadership/governance structure that is well understood by the church with a robust degree of member participation and lay leadership.
- Develop future generations of spiritual church leadership.
- Find new ways to engage more people within the congregation in missional lives of service.

(This list reflects our #1 prioritized goals)

Question 22. Has there ever been disciplinary action taken against a pastor of your congregation?

☐ Yes     ☒ No

Even though we have answered this question in the negative based upon specific Book of Order ecclesiastical judicial procedures, we feel led by the Holy Spirit to expand on some of the history of pastors at Eastminster Church. Over the past thirty years, Eastminster has had five senior pastors with multiple Interim senior pastors. During this same period, numerous Associate Pastors have served the church. Many of these fine men and one woman served Eastminster well. Some were led by God to minister in different locations, and some were asked by Session to resign their positions.

This PSC feels strongly its responsibility to discern God's will in calling the next Senior Pastor and in exercising due diligence in that endeavor. Competency, character, emotional intelligence, and spiritual vitality are values we humbly and prayerfully seek in pastoral leadership for Eastminster.

Question 23. Has there ever been disciplinary action taken against an elder or deacon of your congregation?

☐ Yes     ☒ No

Over the same period as for the pastor discipline question above, Eastminster has had many elders and deacons faithfully serve the Lord and the congregation. We have had church officers resign from the respective boards primarily due to job relocation issues, but we have also experienced resignations due to unresolved conflict based upon spiritual and theological differences. These officers have counseled with pastors and have concluded their resignations were in the best interest of all parties.

Question 24. Have you completed a mission statement, vision statement and/or a strategic plan for your congregation?

  X   Yes (initial study in 2018/ revised March 2023)        No

MISSION, VALUES, DISTINCTIVES, AND VISION

Mission Statement

To encourage people to enjoy the fullness of knowing, loving, and becoming like Jesus.

Values:

- God above All – We are determined that all we do and every decision we make bring God glory. We desire that our worship be pleasing to God and exalt Him in all ways.
- Ministry for Transformation – We preach, teach, and model the gospel of Jesus Christ for transformation of the heart and renewal of the mind. We proclaim the word of God from a reformed understanding. We emphasize discipleship through study of the Word and authentic relationship with other believers. We seek to live lives filled and in fellowship with the Holy Spirit. Our teaching should provide not only head knowledge but equip us to live what we learn. We promote transformative, lifelong learning.
- High Grace – High Truth – Our interactions, conversation, and collaboration must be clothed in Grace at all times and always be based on truth and the love of Christ. We will never shy away from truth but ensure that it is always marked by compassion and love.
- Generation to Generation -- We value intergenerational relationships and an intergenerational church. We seek to equip parents to make the home the center of discipleship and our youth to participate in the full life of the church.
- Generosity and Responsibility -- God has blessed our church with significant material resources. We intend to exercise prayerful wisdom in the use of those resources and pursue abundant generosity with our time, talent, and treasures.
- We All Go -- We represent Christ wherever we go and rejoice in sending representatives of Christ to the end of the street and the ends of the earth, especially those places to which we are uniquely called.

Distinctives:

- High View of Scripture -- We celebrate, protect, preach, and teach the word of God for the infallible treasure and authority that it is.
- Reformed Faith -- Eastminster has always valued and propagated a reformed understanding of the Christian faith.
- Discipleship -- Eastminster emphasizes and pursues the active discipleship of its members toward mature and transformative relationship with Jesus Christ.
- Call to Mission -- God called this church generations ago to the passionate support of world and local mission activities.
- Evangelism -- Eastminster desires to work with the Holy Spirit in the presentation of the gospel and conversion of people to faith.
- Resources -- Eastminster is mindful that God has blessed it with significant resources which it dedicates to the use of the Kingdom.

We All Go

- We are representatives of Christ wherever we go, demonstrating his love and ready to share the message of his hope
- As demonstrated by Giving, sending and going to take this gospel to the ends of the earth, especially in those places we are uniquely called
- Scripture: Acts 1:8, John 4:35

Strategy

Marks of Discipleship

- I Revel in the Father's Grace
- I Connect Daily with Jesus in Word and Prayer
- I Respond to the Spirit as He Leads
- I Do Life with Others who point me to Jesus
- I desire Jesus More than Sin
- I Pursue Justice, Show Mercy, Walk Humbly
- I am Investing in Someone Far from God

The Vision

Eastminster exists to glorify God as it impacts the city and the nations. Eastminster will share the Gospel and the love of God to the end of the street and the ends of the earth, among friends and family, in our neighborhoods, in service to Washington Elementary (an urban Wichita Title 1 school), working with supported local and global missionaries and agencies, and seeking to plant a church among unreached Albanian Muslims in North Macedonia.

IMMEDIATE AND MID-TERM VISION

The following reflects our church's aspirational vision to continue, expand, and invigorate our ministries which have built and sustained us since inception.

- 1. Support the leadership and ministerial structure necessary to guard the mission and vigorously implement God's purposes for Eastminster.
  - Foster and continuously emphasize a culture of godly communication and collaboration between staff and Session characterized by personal humility, grace, confession, and repentance.
  - Provide for the personal and spiritual well-being of Eastminster staff and their families.
  - Reduce the size of Session and establish an efficient and collaborative committee structure.
- 2. Advance a culture of discipleship which develops hearts, minds, and relationships with all ministries of the church and grow groups with special attention to intergenerational ministry.
  - Recognize that many people in our church carry a heavy burden that can only be addressed and healed through a personal or needed relationship with Jesus and deep care from the body of Christ.
  - Develop opportunities that celebrate the centrality and wonder of scripture and our heritage in the reformed faith (e.g., theologian in residence)
  - Empower staff to pursue prayerfully, creatively and collaboratively all of the above.
- 3. Honor the power and centrality of prayer as the lifeblood for our ministry.
  - Create opportunities that explain the biblical imperative for prayer and the desire that Eastminster be known as a house of prayer.
  - Openly admit, study, discuss, and engage in the spiritual warfare that plagues our church, our community, our nation and our world.
- 4. Promote the imperative of evangelism and the need for presenting the Gospel of Jesus Christ within our spheres of influence. (e.g., through preaching and teaching about relationship evangelism)
  - Personally mentoring new converts and believers onto a path of discipleship.
- 5. Continue to leverage Eastminster's passion for and history with missions.
  - Expand programming for our own church mission. (e.g., Family retreats, relationship building events.)
  - Continue to seek God's call for missionary efforts in the U.S. and the world.
  - Continue to pursue strategic relationships and our church's own internal programs with missionaries and missionary organizations to maximize impact for the Kingdom.
- 6. Live in Gratitude. Eastminster is a gift. It belongs to God.

1. What do you consider to be the three most important events in the history of your church?

- February 4, 1976 – Project Light
Eastminster has a rich history of generosity as seen in its decision in 1976 to delay its own building project to rebuild Presbyterian churches destroyed by an earthquake in Guatemala. This shows the heart of Eastminster, its generosity to those in need, and the passion of a church dedicated to missions locally and globally.
- Pastoral Changes and Congregational Response
A steady change in Senior Pastors, Interim Pastors and Associate Pastors in the years between Bob Henley and Stan Van Den Berg led to a lack of confidence in church leadership. This was not one single event, but a series of transitions that confused those directly involved in leadership even as it forced those serving in leadership to confidentially deal with difficult and sensitive matters. Compounding those challenges, three young staff members in key leadership roles left Eastminster to begin a new church. This was a sudden and unsettling blow to many in our congregation. A group of about 40 young families who were very involved in the life of our church left with the staff. There were hurt feelings and lots of misunderstandings as a result. There were staff members who felt blind-sided by this change. There remains a significant effect from those years.
- Denominational move from PCUSA to the EPC (October 2012)
The change of Eastminster from the PCUSA to the EPC was important in the life of our church. The decision highlighted the church's theological unity and energized the congregation as lay leaders on Session spearheaded the transition with the assistance of EPC interim pastor Bob Hopper. The commitment of the church to Scripture and sound Biblical teaching was appreciated and celebrated as we moved into a new denomination and established a new Presbytery of the Great Plains.

2. What do you consider to be the most interesting and challenging event in the life of your church in the last three years?

Session is in the process of hiring a Transitional Pastor who will act as Lead Pastor while accomplishing transitional goals. The development tasks of a Transitional Pastor set by the denomination are:

- "Coming to Terms with History
- Discovering a New Identity
- Facilitating Shifts of Power
- Renewing Denominational Ties
- Building Commitment to a New Leadership and a New Future." (Per the Procedural Manual for Ministerial and Candidates Committee Section 12: Guidelines for Transitional Pastoral Ministry pages 106-108.)

Upon completion of these goals a new permanent Lead Pastor will be called anticipated no earlier than 2025. This is an interesting, challenging and hopeful season for Eastminster.
