Memorial Park EPC

Love People. Know Jesus. Live Transformed.

Memorial Park is an EPC Church located in the North Hills of Pittsburgh. We are a missional congregation of about 1,200 members who strive to Love People. Know Jesus. Live Transformed. Our vibrant community of Jesus-followers is active in our numerous ministry areas including preschool, kids, teens, adults, senior-adults, alongside numerous local outreach and international mission opportunities.

The community surrounding the church is diverse and engaging. We are just a few miles outside of downtown Pittsburgh and the North Hills area offers a number of restaurants, movie theaters, parks, and other activities for any interest.

We are currently seeking for fill a new Associate Pastor of Congregational Care role in early 2023. The position is focused on member care for both our online and in-person congregation. We hope you will take a few moments to watch our Who We Are video that explores the church and the local community in more detail. It is available on our church website here Associate Pastor Search | Memorial Park Church along with other information about our search, including the Church Information Form, and the process for applying.
