

Worship Director

Job Title: Worship Director

Supervisor: Pastor

Projected Salary: $250 / Worship Service / Special Service

General Job Description

The Worship Director is called to guide Lookout Mountain Community into worship through music and other creative means. They will coordinate with the Pastor to plan musical worship for Sundays and special services. Together they will put together a service that honors our Lord Jesus Christ. Would prefer applicant who can play at least one instrument and able to do vocals while playing instrument.

Major Duties and Responsibilities

- Plan worship services with the Senior Pastor in picking out songs that fit each service's overall theme.
- To work with staff and volunteers in planning and executing our worship services by attending weekly staff meeting.
- Help set up and tear down our sound and technical equipment before and after worship on Sunday mornings at Evergreen Country Day School or any other special location that Lookout might hold our services.
- To put together the song list, chord charts, and lyrical slides by Friday mornings on a weekly basis.

Minor Duties and Responsibilities

- Creatively dream of ways to guide us in worship that help grow and challenge the congregation.
- Envision how worship and services can look at Lookout in creating a meaningful and immersive worship experience for our church.

Potential Future Endeavors

- Establish a larger worship leadership team.

- Recruit other musicians to help contribute to our worship together.

*Our hope is to see the breadth of this position grow Lookout Mountain Community Church's depth of worship while also growing our congregation. We would like to see the worship director lead our congregation in such a way that we can increase both the position's responsibilities and leadership capacity. We hope to see the Worship Director join our leadership team at Lookout that we might see the Spirit move in and through us, creating a culture of praise and worship in our midst.

For further inquiry, please email questions, cover letter, or resume to Johanna at joannabrigman@gmail.com.