

JOB TITLE: Associate Worship & Arts Director

DATE: April 2024

REPORTS TO: Worship & Arts Director

STATUS: Full-time (30 hours), Exempt

DUTIES & ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

- Collaborate with the Worship & Arts Director in planning and leading worship services: Beyond weekly Sunday morning worship, this also includes quarterly worship nights and weekly rehearsals.
- Help shepherd the congregation: This role is key to leading people in worship at Storyhill on Sunday mornings and through interactions during the week. It engages with the cautious, curious, and committed and helps guide them in responding to the grace of Jesus.
- Recruit and coordinate volunteer leaders and volunteers: This role will be responsible for developing and growing the following Worship & Arts teams: Musicians & Vocalists, AV/Tech, ProPresenter, Design/Aesthetic, Intercessor, and Sunday Handler. This person will lead volunteer leaders who oversee key areas of the worship experience at Storyhill and follow up with new people to help get them connected to Worship & Arts serving opportunities.
- Perform administrative duties, as required, to facilitate Worship & Arts ministry: This includes sending out weekly informational emails to volunteers; setting up volunteer pathways in the Realm church database; ensuring that slides are built in "ProPresenter" software; managing software subscriptions, licenses, and reports; helping manage the Worship & Arts budget; and serving as the point person to ensure coverage for music at Weddings, Funerals, and special events to be held at the new church building.
- Connect in a meaningful way to the local community outside the scope of regular Storyhill activities: How this duty is exercised will depend on the interests of the person serving. It may or may not involve music.

COMPETENCIES

- Musician Strengths: A Strong musical skill set that includes leading other musicians and the rest of the congregation.
- Attention-to-Detail: The ability to collaborate, dream, and cast vision, combined with the ability to take initiative, follow through, and understand the small steps required to see an event or project through to a successful completion.
- Blends executing strengths with relational intelligence: Able to get things done but enjoys interacting with people and helping them feel valued.
- Leadership and people-development skills – Has experience recruiting volunteers, and developing volunteer leaders equipped to lead others.
- Competency using Planning Center Online & ProPresenter (or like software)
- High adaptability to change/positive disposition
- Spiritual leader/Spiritually inclusive – Able to help people at varying faith levels (cautious, curious, or committed) approach God’s throne of grace in worship.

QUALIFICATIONS

- Alignment with the Mission and Vision of Storyhill Church
- Evidence of growing faith in Jesus Christ
- Record of working well on a team
- Humble spirit that sees themselves as a fellow participant in the life of the congregation
- A love for the Davidson, NC community
- Added Benefit: Previous exposure to Storyhill Church

To apply, send your cover letter and resume to Mandie Jester at mjester@storyhill.org. Along with your application, include a link to a short representative video of your musical/worship leadership in a setting of your choosing.