Hendersonville, North Carolina

Worship Director

Hendersonville Presbyterian Church exists to make disciples of Jesus to the glory of God. Disciples are motivated by the desire to follow Jesus together: at home, in community, and in the world. All of our staff roles are primarily leadership roles, equipping the saints for the work of ministry (Eph. 4). Thus, our staff must glorify God by equipping disciples to follow Jesus.

Sunday worship services are a primary means of discipleship for the body of Christ. Each week in worship, believers have their hearts transformed as they remember the story of the gospel and come before God to respond. The Worship Director is a key part of this leadership team. Throughout the week, the Worship Director helps plan Sunday worship, including sings, instrumentals, and liturgical elements. This does not mean being the main leader each week. The Worship Director will work with the pastoral staff to equip the saints for worship and service. The Worship Director will also work with volunteers who contribute to Sunday services, including audio, video, media, choir, instrumentalists, and vocalists. A key part of the worship director's vision must include discipling current volunteer leadership and developing new volunteer worship leaders and support personnel.

A Degree in music and experience working with both choirs and worship bands is a plus.
