Dear Jerry,

The congregation of St. John's Church on Morgan Hill, Easton, PA, is prayerfully and actively searching for our next full time Pastor. As you know, I am an EPC Teaching Elder and serving as the Interim Pastor.

We are seeking a pastor who demonstrates a deep personal relationship with Jesus Christ, has earned a Master of Divinity degree, affirms historic confessions of the Reformed tradition including the Apostles Creed, the Nicene Creed, and the Heidelberg Catechism, and is an Evangelical in dedication to reaching people in our community and the world with the Good News and saving grace of Jesus Christ.

We are an historic Church that traces our beginnings at this location to 1842. Formerly a member of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, then the United Church of Christ, we became an independent congregation in 2006. As a non-denominational Church affiliated with the Evangelical Association of Reformed & Congregational Christian Churches (EA), evangelicalassociation.org/, we seek a pastor who is in agreement with the "Statement of Faith", "Core Values", and "Issues and Core Beliefs" of the EA. (St. John's Church primarily practices infant baptism and affirms the role of women in ministry.)

We recently updated our Church Information Form which can be found on the main page of our website, www.StJohnsMorganHill.org, or at this link. Please repost this opportunity to the EPC's list of pastoral opportunities so interested candidates may apply. Although we have received 13 applications, and are moving through initial interviews with several candidates, the Pastoral Search Committee is still very interested in meeting candidates who feel called to this opportunity.

Candidates who wish to explore this opportunity should email 1) a cover letter that includes a personal testimony with a description of sense of calling and how this position would fulfill that calling, 2) a resume, and 3) sample sermons, preferably video links for two or three sermons, to the Pastoral Search Committee at 18042forChrist@GMail.com.

Candidate review has begun and will continue until the successful candidate is chosen.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours in Christ,

The Rev. Dr. Scott Janney
TE, Presbytery of the East
Interim Pastor and Pastoral Search Committee Chair
